JUNE CONCERTS

The two concerts in June were very enjoyable and successful. We are indebted to Mrs Anna Bernard for arranging the concert on Saturday, 19th, which showed the talent of her pupils. The proceeds were shared between the Church and the Bath Cats and Dogs Home. We thank Anna and all the performers for a splendid evening.

On the following Saturday, 26th June, there was a special performance by the Bath Gilbert and Sullivan Society. We were treated to favourite solos and ensemble singing of a very high standard. Again we are grateful to everyone who helped to make the evening so enjoyable. The proceeds were for Church Funds.

MORE MUSIC AT NEWTON

We are now looking forward to The Salford Singers concert in Newton Church on Sunday afternoon 18th July, at 3pm. Mr David Coysh, the Musical Director, has arranged a programme of summertime songs which we are sure will be popular. Tickets are £5, from Trevor Ewins or Grenville Gore-Langton, or pay on the door. We are pleased to have this choir of local singers come to entertain us. Please support them and us.
